In response to your emailed questions, at this point we are beating a dead horse over this mailer and I have no intention of continuing to spend time on a non-issue. I am going to refer you to a previous media statement regarding the same topic, which is attached.

Regarding Gary Moore's allegation:

Gary Moore is factually incorrect in his allegations regarding process, intent, approval, and appropriateness of the actions of the BCRP Committee. In fact, his continued attempts to publicly undermine the BCRP Committee and its officers says more about his alignment with the Party and its Platform, and his endorsements during this primary election, than it does the effectiveness of our Party. The Party is responsible for maintaining the integrity of the Republican platform. It is not fluid and determined by whichever candidates happen to be running. I would urge critics to check themselves and the facts before continuing to attack the Party that consistently provides quality Conservative candidates for elected office, and policy positions that make Boone County such a great place to live, work, and raise a family.

Regards,
